Dear Residents, Families & Friends at Whiddon Narrabri

Firstly, I hope that everyone had an enjoyable Easter and time with family and friends. I would like to take this opportunity to update you on the following please;

Announcement – Farewell Abraham:

This week we say farewell and thanks to Mr Abraham Nyanzero who has been leading the team at Narrabri Jessie Hunt since Sara Cameron commenced her Maternity Leave. It has been a pleasure working with Abraham who has brought his passion and commitment to our residents and team members and wish him the very best for his next exciting opportunity. The team will farewell Abraham officially with a Morning Tea on Thursday.

Interim DCS Mr Vincent Connolly:

From next week Mr. Vincent Connolly will be providing Clinical and Operational Leadership to both Narrabri Robert Young and Jessie Hunt. Vincent has been with us for several weeks now based predominately at Robert Young. Vincent, Renuka and the Senior Clinical Leadership team will be your first point of contact until we welcome Mr Colin McDonald to the role of Acting DCS for Narrabri from 1 June 2023 through to April 2024.

Whiddon Strategic Roadshow – Visit to Narrabri May 3 & 4 May:

I am pleased to advise that several members of the Whiddon Executive and Senior Leadership Team will be visiting Narrabri and are looking forward to meeting with residents, families and staff at the following times and we look forward to as many people as possible joining us for these sessions

- Robert Young – Wednesday 3 May at 2:30pm
- Jessie Hunt - Thursday 4 May at 10:30am

If you have any questions please don't hesitate to get in touch with the team at Narrabri or please don't hesitate to contact me on the phone or email below

Yours sincerely,
