CHSP FAQs

Why can't one provider offer all of the services I need?

CHSP funding is managed a bit differently to other aged care services, so the options each organisation can provide is based on a number of different things, including what they have applied and been approved to provide.

An aged care provider may be able to provide a range of the services, or just one or two types of services. What they can provide depends on what they have funding to offer.

How long will my service be?

The service time will depend on your individual needs and the services that you are requesting.

Service time will vary between each person, depending on your goals and funding available. These could be from 1 hour to 6 hours of service.

Can I have both DA, PC and Social on the one day?

Yes, you can receive all services on the same day. This is all dependent on your CHSP Approvals and in negotiation with your provider, to support your goals.

Home Care Packages: Understanding the costs and your contributions

As a recipient of a Home Care Package from the Australian Government, it's important that you understand the funding that you receive, how the different fee components work and what they mean for you and your care.

Home Care Packages

There are four levels of Home Care Packages available in Australia. Each level provides the consumer with a different amount of funding to contribute to the cost of their care.

A Level 1 Home Care Package provides a low level of funding, designed to support you with a few hours of care and support per week. A Level 4 Home Care Package is the highest available and is designed to support someone requiring a high level of care and support to stay living at home.

The funding amount provided by the Australian Government for each level of Home Care Packages changes regularly - the latest rates can be found on www.myagedcare.gov.au

Basic Daily Fee

The basic daily fee is set as a percentage of the single aged pension. The full rate changes based on your assigned package level:

- Level 1 – 15.68% = $9.88 per day*
- Level 2 – 16.58% = $10.44 per day*
- Level 3 – 17.05% = $10.74 per day*
- Level 4 – 17.50% = $11.02 per day*

This fee is calculated at a daily rate, however consumers pay the fee for every day they have a government assigned Home Care Package. This means that you pay the Basic Daily Fee 7 days per week, even if you're only receiving services on a Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

The amount that you contribute through the Basic Daily Fee contributes directly to your services - this additional contribution to your funding can mean an extra hour (or more) of services for you.

Income Tested Care Fee

If your income is above a certain amount, the government requires you to contribute to the cost of your care package. This Income Tested Fee is based on an individual assessment by Centrelink and will vary based on your income. It is currently capped at a maximum of $31.14 per day*. Annual and lifetime caps will accrue if this fee is applicable to you, meaning that once you reach your annual or lifetime cap you no longer need to pay.

If you pay on Income Tested Care Fee, the government's subsidy reduces by the same amount. The amount you pay through an Income Tested Care Fee stays the same, regardless of your package.

*Figures correct as at October 2021

Case study 1: June Fully subsidised Home Care Package

June is an 83 year old woman living at home who receives a full pension. She receives a Level 3 funded Home Care Package. This means that the government subsidises the full cost of her care through a Home Care Package worth $34,551 per annum.

June also contributes $3,858 per annum through her Basic Daily Fee. This means that June is 'topping up' the value of her package and can access a few more services. With her Basic Daily Fee, June's package is worth $38,409 per annum.

1. June's contribution

$3,748 per annum
$144 per fortnight

2. Government contribution

$34,661 per annum
$1,333 per fortnight

= Total amount to spend on care and support to stay at home
$38,409 per annum
$1,477 per fortnight

Case study 2: Max Partially subsidised Home Care Package

Max is a 90 year old man living at home receiving a Level 4 Home Care Package. Max receives a partially subsidised Home Care Package as he has some assets and Centrelink has determined that he needs to pay an Income Tested Care Fee. Max's annual income is above $28,100 but below $54,220 so he pays an Income tested Care Fee of $15.12 per day and his Government subsidy reduces by the same amount from $52,377.50 to $46,859 for a L4 package.

1. Max's contribution

$3,850 per annum
$148 per fortnight

2. Max's Income Tested Care Fee

$5,506 per annum
$211 per fortnight

3. Government contribution

$46,859 per annum
$1,802 per fortnight

= Total amount to spend on care and support to stay at home
$56,215 per annum
$2,163 per fortnight

*These costs are estimates only and are subject to change depending on government rates. Numbers are based on Home Care Package subsidies in 2019 and are intended as an example only.
